A BIG STEAL.

Embezzlement of Upward of $600,000 in Four Years by a New York Book-Keeper.

NEW YORK, January 4.-Charles K. Beckwith, late in the employ of Babbitt & Co., soap manufacturers, New York, was arrested yesterday on the charge of embezzling from that firm eleven thousand six hundred and fifty six dollars. This is the amount named in the warrant, but it is only a fraction of the sum supposed to be taken. Beckwith, who is a married man, about thirty-five years old, was employed by Mr. James Babbitt from 1868 to 1873 as a confidential clerk, cashier and book-keeper. His duties were to keep the bank account, receive and pay out money, drawing checks which had been signed in blank by his employer. He was implicitly trusted, and no suspicion was entertained of his integrity for a long time. In 1873, however, Mr. Babbitt had a seemed to him to indicate that Beckwith was untrustworthy. This caused him to discharge Beckwith on February 19, 1873. The cause being interest, but picion, no steps were then taken, but about November 1, 1875, Officer Golden became possessed of some information which pointed directly toward Beckwith as an embezzler, and he informed dollars, were destroyed by fire in Jeffer- Mr. Babbitt of what he had heard. Golden was given charge of the case. The books were taken to Mr. Babbitt's residence, and experts were engaged to make thorough division of them. Bulletins aumouncing the condition of the health of Ex-Quean Isabella, of Spain, are issued daily in Paris. of the embezzlement will reach nearly six hundred thousand dollars. A comparison of the business done during the last eighteen months in which Beckwith was employed by Mr. Babbitt, was made with that done in the eighteen months immediately succeeding his de parture, which showed that not withstanding the fact that five per cent. had been taken off the prices-which would reduce the receipts more than one undred thousand dollars—the total amount of receipts was some six hundred and seventy-three thousand dollars less during the time when Beckwith was employed than afterward. His mode of swindling was to alter checks, make enty-seven years, a native of Ireland, was burned to death in New Orleans on to pay bills which did not exist. For in false entries in the ledger, and pretend stance, a bill was rendered for three hundred and ninety-three dollars. Beckwith paid and drew a check for one thousand three hundred and ninetythree dollars, altering the books and in-voices to correspond. The amount of six dollars and fifty-five cents, upon which the warrant was issued, was a clear case of stealing that amount, Beckwith having filled in a check and having drawn the money, which Mr. Bab-bitt never received. When a check was drawn it was stamped, "Pay to the or-der of C. R. Beckwith," and he would then pay it away himself. Beckwith Paymaster Spaulding is arrested and 68 Wall street. and at the office of the Clerk and Master of said court.

Many of these lots have valuable improvements; and the bidder is especially referred to the "Commandant's House"—a spacious building commanding a splendid view of the river, and fronting to the west on Promenale street, which is well paved. Most of the houses are well built and have good cisterns attached; and that portion of the property fronting west on Promenale street is among the coolest and most pleasant in the city for family residences. That part west of Promenade street, and west of the vertical wall, is suited to manufacturing purposes as well as any plece of land in the country.

Parts of this property are under leases to good paying tenants at fair and remuneralive prices, the leases running to 1886, 1887 and 1889; all of which will appear by the map, ard the lots will be sold subject to said leases.

Purchasers to give notes, hearing interest from date, with approved security, and a lien to be retained until the purchase money is paid.

Immediate possession will be given to all property not under lease.
